

Three Streets In Village To Be Resurfaced

Three village streets will be resurfaced under an improvement program approved Monday by the Village Trustees.

Liberty Asphalt Co. of Grayslake was awarded the contract to construct the new streets, three of the poorest of seven slated for improvement.

The cost will be $25,708.50.

The streets are Harden Street from Rte. 173 to Hillside Avenue; Hillside Avenue between Harden Street and Rte. 59; and Depot Street from Main Street to the Soo Line Railroad.

Four other streets were proposed for improvement but the lack of funds prevented the trustees from carrying out the program announced several weeks ago by Public Works Supt. Charles Maplethorpe.

Maplethorpe said Depot Street was in the worst condition and should be taken care of first.

Village Mayor Raymond Toft proposed that Lake Street be widened from Spafford Street to Hillside Avenue to allow for increased traffic expected to develop from three new businesses proposed for the street.

One of the buildings under construction on Lake Street is the Ben Franklin Store.

At least two others next to Ben

Franklin are being considered, said the mayor.

Mayor Toft said the owners of the two other businesses are planning a meeting with the Ben Franklin Store owner to consider one parking lot across the front of the three businesses instead of being split by entrance and exit routes.

"It will give all three firms more parking and cut down the number of entrance and exit routes," said the mayor. "I believe it is to the advantage of the firms."

Mayor Toft said that Lake Street will be widened on the north about six feet and that it would take place possibly next spring.

The Robinson and Brock Construction Co. of Gurnee was awarded the contract to install a sewer and water extension on Drom Court on its low bid of $23,188.

The project is being financed by homeowners benefiting by the improvement. The engineers estimate on the sewer and water lines was $22,242.

Other bidders were M&S Construction Co., Geneva, $26,317.50; William Ziegler & Sons, Round Lake, $30,751; and Kuch and Ingram of Russell, $34,346.25.

Four bids were received from auto agencies on the purchase of a dump truck. Low bidder was Pedersen Brothers Implement Co. of Antioch which submitted a price and allowed for trade on a grader and a truck.

The board has decided to wait until Maplethorpe has had a chance to see what the village can get on the sale of the truck before awarding the contract.

The trustees approved the petition of Antioch Lumber & Coal Co. to vacate Park Street and Railroad Avenue. It was pointed out that the firm owns all of the property surrounding the streets.

The trustees authorized the purchase of a new typewriter for the police department for $382.50.

Village policemen issued 154 parking tickets last month. Parking meter violation fines paid last month were 91; parking meter collections totaled $610 and Lake County Circuit Court fines amounted to $1,453.34.

There were 58 traffic violation tickets including 23 for speeding.

The police department also investigated 23 traffic accidents; 13 complaints of burglary and theft; five vandalism incidents and 11 juvenile cases.

Absent from the meeting were Trustees George W. Bartlett and J. Irving Walsh.

VOL. LXXXV. NUMBER 7

Chickens by the hundreds were bar-b-que'd Sunday as the Antioch Lion's Club annual picnic was held at the Antioch Aqua Center. The annual affair was termed a huge success for all who attended.

Antioch Phone Directory Out

The 1970 telephone directory being distributed in Antioch and the Lake towns starting next week contains much more than just telephone numbers, according to Illinois Bell manager Al Swan.

A new feature this year is a page at the beginning of the yellow pages which lists zip codes for 365 communities in Illinois.

Also included is an emergency number page on the inside front cover of the directory, giving easy access to police and fire numbers, the FBI, tornado warning and in Lakefront communities, the number of the Coast Guard rescue service. Space is provided for customers to insert their own doctor's number and the number of a local ambulance service.

The preliminary pages of each directory give customers the area codes for different parts of the country, direct distance dialing procedures, typical long distance rates, toll-free calling areas and other information.

"This directory is one of 127 published each year for Illinois Bell customers," Swan said. "Of that number, 57 are in the Chicago suburban area. All of these books represent 11,918,136,000 pages of listings and special telephone information pages printed annually."

Persons distributing the new books will try to pick up the old book at the same time. "This practice has a three-fold purpose," Swan said. "We find that our customers make fewer mistakes in dialing when they have the newest reference book, so old books around the house not only cause clutter but cause delays in completing a call."

"The second reason old books are collected is that it helps us make sure that the new books have been delivered to customers," Swan added. "And the third reason is salvage. Returned telephone books from throughout the state represent about 5,400 tons of paper. These salvaged books are sold to a paper mill in Wisconsin and reprocessed into napkins, dollies and other soft paper products. We order special soluble inks for the printing and animal glues for the binding to facilitate the processing."

Again, this year, suburban telephone directories will contain three separate sections of telephone numbers: an alphabetical section containing local area numbers, yellow pages section in the middle, and regional listings at the back of the book.

"Delivery of the directories is normally completed in two weeks," Swan said.

Ask Police Appreciation Week

U. S. Senator Ralph Tyler Smith (R-Ill.) Monday introduced a resolution in the Senate to make October 25-31 Law Enforcement Officials Appreciation Week throughout the nation.

"I am also writing President Nixon, Attorney General Mitchell, Governor Ogilvie, Attorney General Scott and Mayor Daley, asking them to declare and support Law Enforcement Officials Appreciation Week, and to participate in ceremonies during that period to memorialize officers who have given their lives in public service, to recognize outstanding police work, and promote greater community-police relations," Smith said.

"Most important," he said, "I am inviting public support of the Police Appreciation program throughout the state and the nation. I am asking all citizens to hold out the hand of friendship, confidence and support to the men in blue."

"To my fellow Illinoisans I say: 'If you feel as I do that our law enforcement officers deserve our cooperation and support, let them know it. Let them know it person to person when you see them on the street. Let them know it by writing their superiors when individual officers have performed.

"If you are uncertain about where to write to voice your support for our police, write me in Washington and I will see that your comments are brought to the attention of appropriate officials," the Senator said.

Scouts Earn Honors

The Troop under the leadership of Scout Master Norm Edwards assisted by Messrs. Berer, Hayden and O'Brien, distinguished themselves by earning an average of more than two merit badges each in subjects ranging from basketry to astronomy.

Star Scout Lee Hayden led the honors with five merit badges. Most Scouts also advanced an additional grade toward their goal of Eagle.

Five scouts earned special awards by swimming a mile in open water.

Camp MA-KA-JA-WAN located in Northern Wisconsin is maintained solely for the Evanston North Shore Council and is staffed by experienced counselors.

Two States To File Pollution Actions

Illinois Attorney General William J. Scott and Slade Gordon, Attorney General of the state of Washington, announced today that they will jointly file suit in the United States Supreme Court seeking to force all the major auto, bus, and truck manufacturers to install effective anti-pollution devices on all motor vehicles in the United States.

Attorney General Scott said the suit, which will be filed next week, will be based on both anti-pollution violations and anti-trust violations. Scott pointed out that under the common law of their respective states, each of the Attorneys General have anti-pollution powers to abate a public nuisance harmful to the health or welfare of the citizens of their states.

Eleven other states from coast to coast which, along with Illinois and Washington, represent 25 per cent of the country's population, have indicated they will join in the suit. Taking part in this unique interstate cooperative action will be Arizona, Colorado, Iowa, Massachusetts, Missouri, Minnesota, Rhode Island, Vermont, Maine, and Hawaii.

Scott's suit charges the defendants, Automobile Manufacturers Association, General Motors, with violation of the Sherman (Continued on page three)

Mrs. Eckert Completes AAAS Course

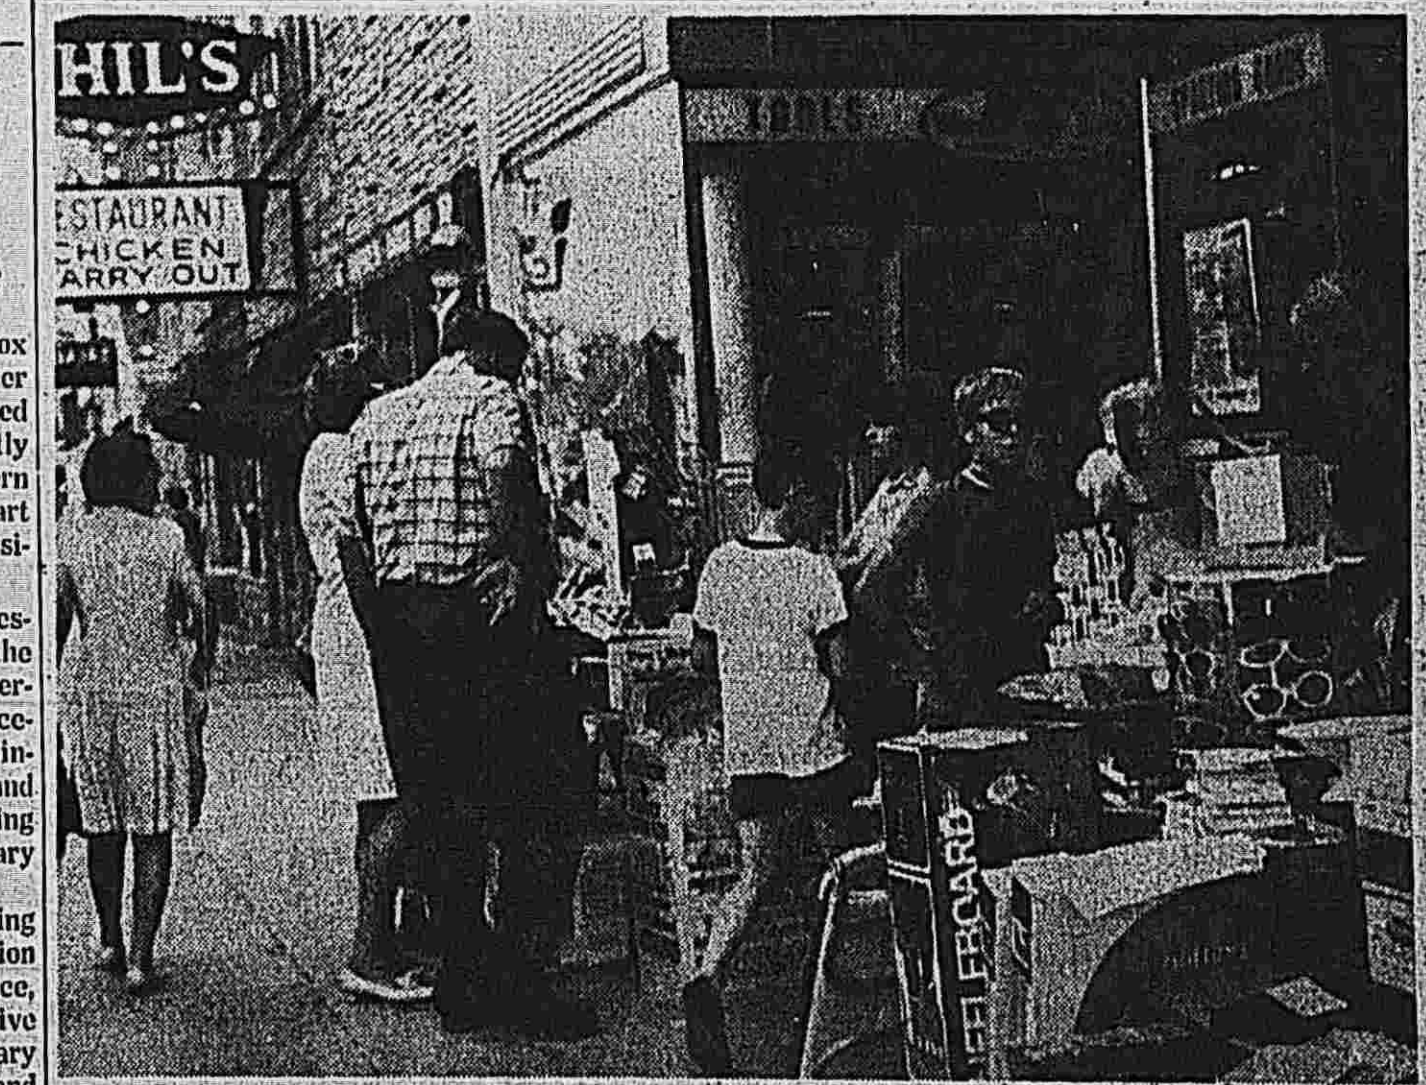

Mrs. Harriet M. Eckert, Box 801, Route 3, Antioch, a teacher in the Randall Consolidated Grade School, Bassett, recently completed the AAAS Modern Science Workshop held as part of the Whitewater State University Summer School.

Lloyd Liedtke, associate professor of physics, conducted the workshop sponsored by the American Association for Advancement of Science. The course involved study of philosophies and points of view for teaching science in modern elementary schools.

The AAAS claims that reading should not be the main criterion for success in learning science, and that the main objective should be to teach elementary pupils to "observe, use space and time relationships, classify, infer, and predict."

Those attending the Lions Club annual picnic dig into the tasty fare. In the background are the prizes that were awarded during the day.

EDITORIAL

A Worthy Affair

With all that is happening in the world today—crime in the streets, the war in Vietnam, the threat to the environment—it is somehow difficult to believe that something even more dramatic is quietly taking place in our very midst.

As you read this, a little girl is fighting for her life in the Mayo Clinic in Rochester, Minn.

She is Rosemarie Thurston, 11, the daughter of Walter and Rosemary Thurston of 5802 Broadway, Richmond.

Rosemarie, or "Doodles" as her Dad affectionately calls her, has cancer.

Illness is no stranger to the Thurston family. Several years ago aplastic anemia took the life of the Thurston's eight-year-old son.

When in late June Rosemarie's parents noticed that she was limping, they immediately took her to a doctor, who in turn hospitalized her for tests.

That was on July 1. Since then, Rosemarie has been transferred to the Mayo Clinic for cobalt and other treatments to destroy the malignancy that threatens her.

The workings of fate are often as ill-timed as they are ill-conceived. The truth of this has been made clear in Rosemarie's case.

Walt Thurston, who is normally prepared to deal with such an emergency, happened to be changing jobs at the time Rosemarie was taken ill. And in the process, he was also changing the insurance that came with the job.

Even though his former employer had paid Walt's medical insurance in full, the insurance company now says that it will not pay for Rosemarie's treatments at Mayo. Neither, of course, will Walt's new insurance policy, which contains the waiting period clause standard to all such policies.

What does a man do when faced with such a situation? The Thurstons agreed that Rosemarie needed her Mother by her side and so Rosemary accompanied her to Mayos to help and comfort her through the trying days ahead.

Walt, faced with the enormous expense of treatments, has stayed behind to raise the funds, visiting his daughter as often as time will permit.

Financing Rosemarie's treatments is not an easy thing to do, and Walt has already come close to exhausting their resources.

The sociologists have been telling us, for the past 20 years, that "neighborhood" is an outdated term because there is no longer any such thing as a true neighbor in the traditional sense of the word.

People, they say, just don't care about each other any more.

Walt Thurston's friends and neighbors don't agree with this.

And that is why they have united to lend a helping hand to the Thurstons, their friends suddenly in need.

That is why people from all walks of life in Richmond, some of whom do not personally know the Thurstons, are pooling their efforts and resources to hold a benefit dance and outing on Friday evening, August 14.

The proceeds from the Benefit for Rosemarie will go entirely toward the cost of her treatments at Mayo. It is a small thing, because helping Rosemarie must be left in the hands of the doctors and Almighty God.

But it will free Walt and Rosemary Thurston from a worry that can only sap their strength and courage at a time when they need these things above all else.

The Benefit Dance and Outing will be held in the parking lot of A. N. May Builders from 6 p.m. to midnight on Friday evening, August 14.

There will be food and music and entertainment for young and old alike.

If you are not already involved in the benefit, this newspaper encourages you and your friends and neighbors in our community to plan to attend.

LAST WEEKEND BUSY, BUSY

Maxwell Street Days were well attended and in spite of the heat all the clerks were pleasant and obliging. The Chamber Dance Saturday night was well attended and the band donated by the Musician's Unions was enjoyed by all. The chicken Bar-B-Q was a sell-out as usual. The Lions Club couldn't have asked for a better day. Still think they cook the best chicken and corn I ever ate. Can't wait till next year to go again. Hear their auction was also very successful. Someone got a bowling ball for 10 cents.

BREWERS GAME TRIP

It was quite an outing for a lot of Antioch people who rode a bus to Milwaukee to see the Brewers and the New York Yankees. The bus was several hours late but the bunch still had lots of fun, even on the trip home.

Country Club Presenting Name Talent

They all agree . . . the Antioch Country Club is the greatest and has everything . . . so say Stan Kenton, Woody Herman and Jack Morgan, leader of the Russ Morgan orchestra.

The sound is superb . . . the stage is the greatest . . . the lighting is excellent . . . the spacious dance floor and the intimate atmosphere of the room are a few of the reasons for the great success of the Antioch Country Club and Steak House.

Its new policy of top name bands and attractions combined with the finest in food, have brought the most complimentary of comments from the above named band leaders, booking agents, visiting dignitaries, and most important of all, the happy customers.

Never in the operation of a club has a policy been received with such warmth by the public. It is a most unusual sight to see departing guests, at the end of an evening's listening and dancing delight, seek out the genial hosts of the Antioch Country Club, John Teresi and John Weiss, and thank them for a wonderful evening.

Coming—August 14 and 15—Henny Youngman. Sept. 6 and 7—Count Basie.

YOU MUST KNOW

HIGHWAY SIGNS, TRAFFIC SIGNALS AND PAVEMENT MARKINGS

It would be quite difficult, if not impossible, to drive upon our modern, complex highway systems without the aid of signs and signals. Not only would we get lost, but the death and accident rate would rise to the point where we would fear to venture forth. Traffic jams would stall the movement of vehicles and highway travel might even become impractical.

Signs and signals tell drivers where they are and what to do. They furnish necessary information and regulate the flow of traffic. Yes, signs and signals are of the utmost importance... but just looking at them is not enough. You cannot drive safely and obey the traffic laws unless you understand the message.

Girl Drowns On Outing With Family

The body of Sharon M. Delaney, 7, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Delaney of Glendale Heights, was recovered in 2 1/2 feet of water in Timber Lake Park, Rte. 45, four miles east of Antioch.

The discovery ended a search early this week by more than 400 men and women and children for the child who was reported missing by her father.

Mrs. Elaine Cory of Roselle discovered the body on the lake bottom as the human chain of searchers walked from the deepest area of the lake in the direction of the shoreline.

Mrs. Cory was taken by the Antioch Rescue Squad to the Zion-Benton Hospital where she was treated for shock. The father identified the girl after her body was taken from the spring-fed lake.

Anti Trust Act. The first count alleges that the defendants, commencing from 1953, conspired to eliminate competition among themselves, deferred research, development and manufacture of motor vehicle anti-pollution devices which has delayed the installation of effective motor vehicle anti-pollution devices, causing the plaintiff states to spend large sums of money for pollution-control, and the people of the two states to live in an "unhealthy environment contaminated by unnatural atmospheric pollutants emitted by motor vehicles manufactured by the defendants."

The suit also charges the defendants have engaged in a common law conspiracy in their anti-competitive activities.

The third count deals with pollution and charges the automobile manufacturers with "causing to be manufactured and operated on the highways of the United States, motor vehicles which emit contaminants into the air, namely carbon monoxide, oxides of nitrogen, hydrocarbons, lead compounds and other toxic particles which constitute a danger to human health and welfare and which directly cause severe damage to the flora and fauna of the plaintiff states, which constitutes a public nuisance."

Scott's suit asks the United States Supreme Court to issue a mandatory injunction requiring the defendants to initiate a court-ordered crash program to produce a pollution control device and/or a pollution free engine at the earliest date as shown by the evidence.

Scott, and Attorney General Gordon, further ask that the auto makers be required to install on all new motor vehicles — and the defendants' expense — and on all existing motor vehicles manufactured since 1953, effective anti-pollution control devices.

Scott said the suit is being filed in the U.S. Supreme Court because pollution caused by autos is "so far-reaching, and of such importance that it constitutes a national nuisance."

The Illinois Attorney General said there would be an overwhelming advantage in a single trail in the high court, rather than separate trials in diverse districts since "the conspiracy alleged is one which has nationwide effect."

Scott earlier filed an anti-trust suit against the automakers in October of 1969 which is now pending in Los Angeles. The Attorney General said he would dismiss any aspect of the Los Angeles suit in which the Supreme Court takes jurisdiction.

Oldest Bible Sought

How old is the oldest privately owned Bible in the Chicago area?

A local church, in support of the American Bible Society's annual Bible reading campaign and a growing interest in religion and the study of the Bible, has started a drive to find out.

Charles S. Cooper, pastor of the North Shore Seventh-day Adventist Church, announced an area-wide contest will be conducted from now until August 8 in a search for Scriptures with a long history.

"It is expected that some rare examples will be reported," the pastor said. He added that Bibles with human-interest stories surrounding them will also be eligible for prizes.

The award for possessing the outstanding Bible in either class will be a new Bible of exceptional quality, Pastor Cooper said. The winning Bibles will be placed on display at the Seventh-day Adventist Church, 5220 North California Avenue, on August 8 at 7:30 p.m.

Owners of the Bibles will not be expected to give them up. The only requirement is that they furnish proof of publication date.

"Publication date is obscure in some cases," Pastor Cooper pointed out, "but often a figure giving month and year is stamped at the bottom of one of the back pages. Family histories in a Bible may also give a clue."

Persons wishing to enter their Bible in the contest are asked to call or write the pastor. His telephone is 784-7314, and his address is 5220 N. California Ave., Chicago 60625. In case the pastor is not available by phone, call 275-3747. Arrangements will be made for either having the Bible presented or having an inspector call to examine the volume and enter its characteristics in the record.

THE SIMPLE TEST TUBE may still be a staple in many laboratories, but at Avco Applied Technology Division, a glassblowing specialist produces glass pieces that make the test tube look like a poor cousin by comparison. In addition to designing one-of-a-kind pieces for specialized materials testing, the Avco specialist has also produced mercury diffusion pumps, distillation apparatus, gas lasers, and component parts of high and ultrahigh vacuum systems.

'Neighbors' Enjoy July Get Together

The Royal Neighbors Olson Camp No. 459 met at the American Legion Hall on July 28. Effie Nelson marched in with the American flag and all said the Pledge of Allegiance.

The secretary's husband, Lawrence Thayer, is doing very nicely after his eye operation.

A surprise visitor from Santa Ana, Calif., was Effie Nelson's niece, Myrtle Hufendick. Also a very happy surprise came when Carolyn Vance from Seminole, Fla., walked into the room, wearing a very beautiful wig. Everyone welcomed our happy visitors. Much mischief and jokes were exchanged while cards were being played. The hostesses for the evening were Gladys Lokke and Emily Novotny and Christine Olson.

A very happy evening was enjoyed by all.

The next meeting of the Royal Neighbors will be Aug. 11 at 8 p.m.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

The symbolism and allegories of the Bible are helpful in conveying spiritual truths that cannot be understood in material terms, according to the Lesson-Sermon on "Spirit" to be read in all Christian Science churches on Sunday, August 9.

An explanation of unseen spiritual power offered by Christ Jesus to Nicodemus and included in the Lesson-Sermon states, "The wind bloweth where it listeth, and thou hearest the sound thereof, but canst not tell whence it cometh, and whither it goeth: so is every one that is born of the Spirit."

One of the accompanying passages from Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures by Mary Baker Eddy, Discoverer and Founder of Christian Science, reads, "Spirit blesses man, but man cannot tell whence it cometh." By it the sick are healed, the sorrowing are comforted, and the sinning are reformed. These are the effects of one universal God, the invisible good dwelling in eternal Science.

All are welcome to attend services beginning at 11 a.m. at First Church of Christ, Scientist, BEACON HILL, Rte. 173 and Harden, Antioch, Ill.

Antioch Little League Makes Great Showing

The Antioch Little League Tournament team reached the Area semi-finals of the National Little League Tournament for the first time in the team's history.

On July 22, Antioch beat Morton Grove South 4-2 on Antioch's diamond. Bruce Tossey pitched an outstanding game for Antioch striking out 10. Terry Romaine got a key hit in the 5th inning when Antioch rallied for 3 runs to win. Shortstop Drew Isaacson's unassisted double play in the 6th inning saved the game for his team.

On July 24, in a game with Lincolnwood, Antioch bested Skokie American by a score of 9-5 with Mitch Witt and Matt Warner sharing the pitching chores. Witt, Bruce Tossey, Terry Romaine and Ron Sheedlo each had 2 hits for Antioch.

On July 27, Antioch was edged by a fine Wauconda club 4-2.

Antioch rallied to load the bases in the bottom of the 6th inning only to have Drew Isaacson's line drive picked off and turned into a double play. Witt, Tossey, and Sheedlo, again were the team's leading hitters.

The tournament team, managed by Tom Poulos and Dick Kessler, were supported by a large number of Antioch fans who journeyed down to Lincolnwood to root for our local Little Leaguers.

Anzinger Is Moving Up, Fast

Bob Anzinger, a nine year veteran of sportsman, modified and late model racing at the Waukegan Speedway, currently ranks 8th at the local Speedway; but he's only 56 points out of 5th spot and he's on the move.

Anzinger will have a shot at 110 championship points this weekend and could pass Vern Browne, Bob Roper and Carl Major depending on their performances. Anzinger gathered in 77 championship points, two phase of local stock car racing. Starting with sportsman stock cars in 1962 and '63, he finished in the top ten and also took his only flip, demolishing 50 yards of fence in the process.

Bob spent most of 1964 in the pits as he owned a Chevy powered Model A modified stock car, but had Bay Darnell of Deerfield behind the wheel. Darnell finished 12th at Waukegan; but when Darnell missed a night, Bob would drive and when 1965 rolled around, Bob had another car and was the only driver.

Bob had only moderate success in his modified in 1965 and '66, winning only two preliminary races at Waukegan and finishing 17th and 12th respectively.

As the late model division at Waukegan started to take over the spotlight in 1967, Anzinger decided to try his hand at that. He missed the early part of the 1967 season, but came out with a 1966 Chevrolet Caprice at mid-season, winning two races and finishing 27th in points.

He was back with the same car on the Waukegan clay in 1968 and won four races, including his only feature win which came on Aug. 3rd. That fall the Waukegan track was asphalted, but Bob ran the 1969 season with a car originally set-up for dirt, finishing 13th with 5 wins.

For 1970 Anzinger moved into the "Super stock" class for sure as he built a '61 Chevrolet truck frame into a stock car racing chassis and then added a 427 cubic inch Chevrolet Corvette en-

Antioch Whips Plum Grove

The Antioch Swim team whipped Plum Grove of Palatine by a score of 188 to 114 at Antioch on Tuesday, July 21.

The host team took command of the event at the start. Leading point producers were: Dave Berry and Barb Dodd with 15, Mariann Mutaw 13, Eddy Barry 12, Judy Berry and Mike Edwards 11, and John Schmidt, Pat Muro and Mike Muro with 10.

Antioch sneaked by Tremper of Kenosha 149-132 at Antioch on July 28.

Antioch won the final two relay events to win the meet. John Schmidt, Dave Berry and Pat Muro had 2 firsts for 10 points and Mariann Mutaw and Barb Dodd had 8 points.

gine and a 1967 Chevelle body. To-date he has recorded 6 wins, run second twice in the feature, set fast time once and established a new 15 lap record.

Bob has had his share of problems this season, though, missing three of the first four nights of racing and then having numerous transmission problems due to an unbalanced drive shaft. He missed the big money in the feature for two nights due to the rivets shearing in his quick-change rear end. Last Sunday, he missed time trials with a broken axle and then, after winning the semi-feature to qualify for the main, was involved in an accident with Carl Major.

Bob started his racing career while living in Antioch, but recently moved to McHenry where he is employed as a mechanic with McHenry Ready Mix. Bob is married and has two daughters, Debbie, age 6 and Diane, age 1 1/2.

Joe Anzinger of Antioch, Bob's brother, helped build the car and owns a small share of the Chevelle. The car is sponsored by Paylon Chevrolet, 908 N. Front St., of McHenry.

Bob and Joe admit their car is radically different from most of the other late models at Waukegan. They claim to run a stock engine, depending on the suspension for their speed. The car also has power brakes. But they feel the real secret to their success is what they call a "center torque" rear suspension design. John Reimer, a five time modified champ on Waukegan's clay, first used the design in his car and he helped Anzinger set up that design.

Low-cost insurance totalling $65.5 million was issued by the Veterans Administration to 6,942 veterans with service-connected disabilities during the first four months of 1970.

Divers Club To Meet

Lake County residents interested in scuba and skin diving are urged to attend the Thursday, Aug. 6, meeting, according to President Howard Webb, of Lake County Divers' Club.

The club meets each first Thursday at Lake Villa Savings, at the junction of Highway 83 and Grand Avenue (Hwy. 132).

"Meetings are open to anyone interested in sport diving, and club divers are available for public service work, as well," President Webb pointed out. "Meetings are usually followed by a film or two on diving."

Meetings begin at 8 p.m., and coffee is served.

Lake County Divers is Illinois' most honored Diving Club, having been chosen club of the year by the Illinois Council of Skin and Scuba Diving Clubs four years in the past five.

Harris Wins At Wilmot

Whitey Harris arrived early at the Kenosha County Speedway in Wilmot on Saturday night and for a long time sat on the guard rail eyeing the water-soaked, freshly clayed quarter mile track and then after a long period of study and thought, went back to his modified stock car, made the right adjustments and won a heat race and his seventh feature at Wilmot. The win came at the end of the wildest night of spins, crashes, accidents and excitement so far this year.

In the second 10 lap heat race the cars were running full out into the turns that held them and contained the full speed and horsepower of the modified engines but somehow Dave Bliss crossed up as he tried to get under Ray Dropp the leader, and spun.

He was hit by Paul Cameron who was then struck by Denny McKay who climbed up onto Cameron's car putting the nose of his racer nearly into the driver's cockpit with Cameron, before getting stopped.

While this was happening, Jim Sullivan hit Dave Bliss' car, tearing off the front wheel on Sullivan's machine. All but McKay and Bliss came back to race on the restart but this time Dropp spun and was hit solidly by Larry Leach, bringing out the second red flag. On this restart Cameron, minus a front bar, was the winner over John Schum and Ray Faulkner.

The 30 lap feature race was also halted twice when on the 15th lap with Roger Otto leading, Ron Bergsma and Whitey Harris, George Fisher crashed off the track and wound up upside down in the chain link fence 60 feet away. Fisher had several small cuts on his nose but was otherwise OK.

He said later that both he and Tom Anderson jumped off the number two turn headed for the same opening and he just got the worst of the hard fought action.

Otto managed to keep his lead on the restart this time, but after Jr. Dodd of Waukegan blew a tire and spun causing the second restart, Otto's car seemed to lose power and Ron Bergsma took the lead and held off Harris for five valiant laps but then yielded to his super speed and deep into the turn driving as Harris finished with a two car length lead. Bill Klein had been the only other race leader as he jumped from his inside pole spot ahead of Jerry Hester to lead for the first 7 laps.

Jim Boehles finally got a win in the 15 lap Sportsman Stock Car feature after he had failed to set fast time and win his heat. Heat winners in the Sportsman's class were Lee Chovan, Burlington, and Les Lunsford, Cudahy.

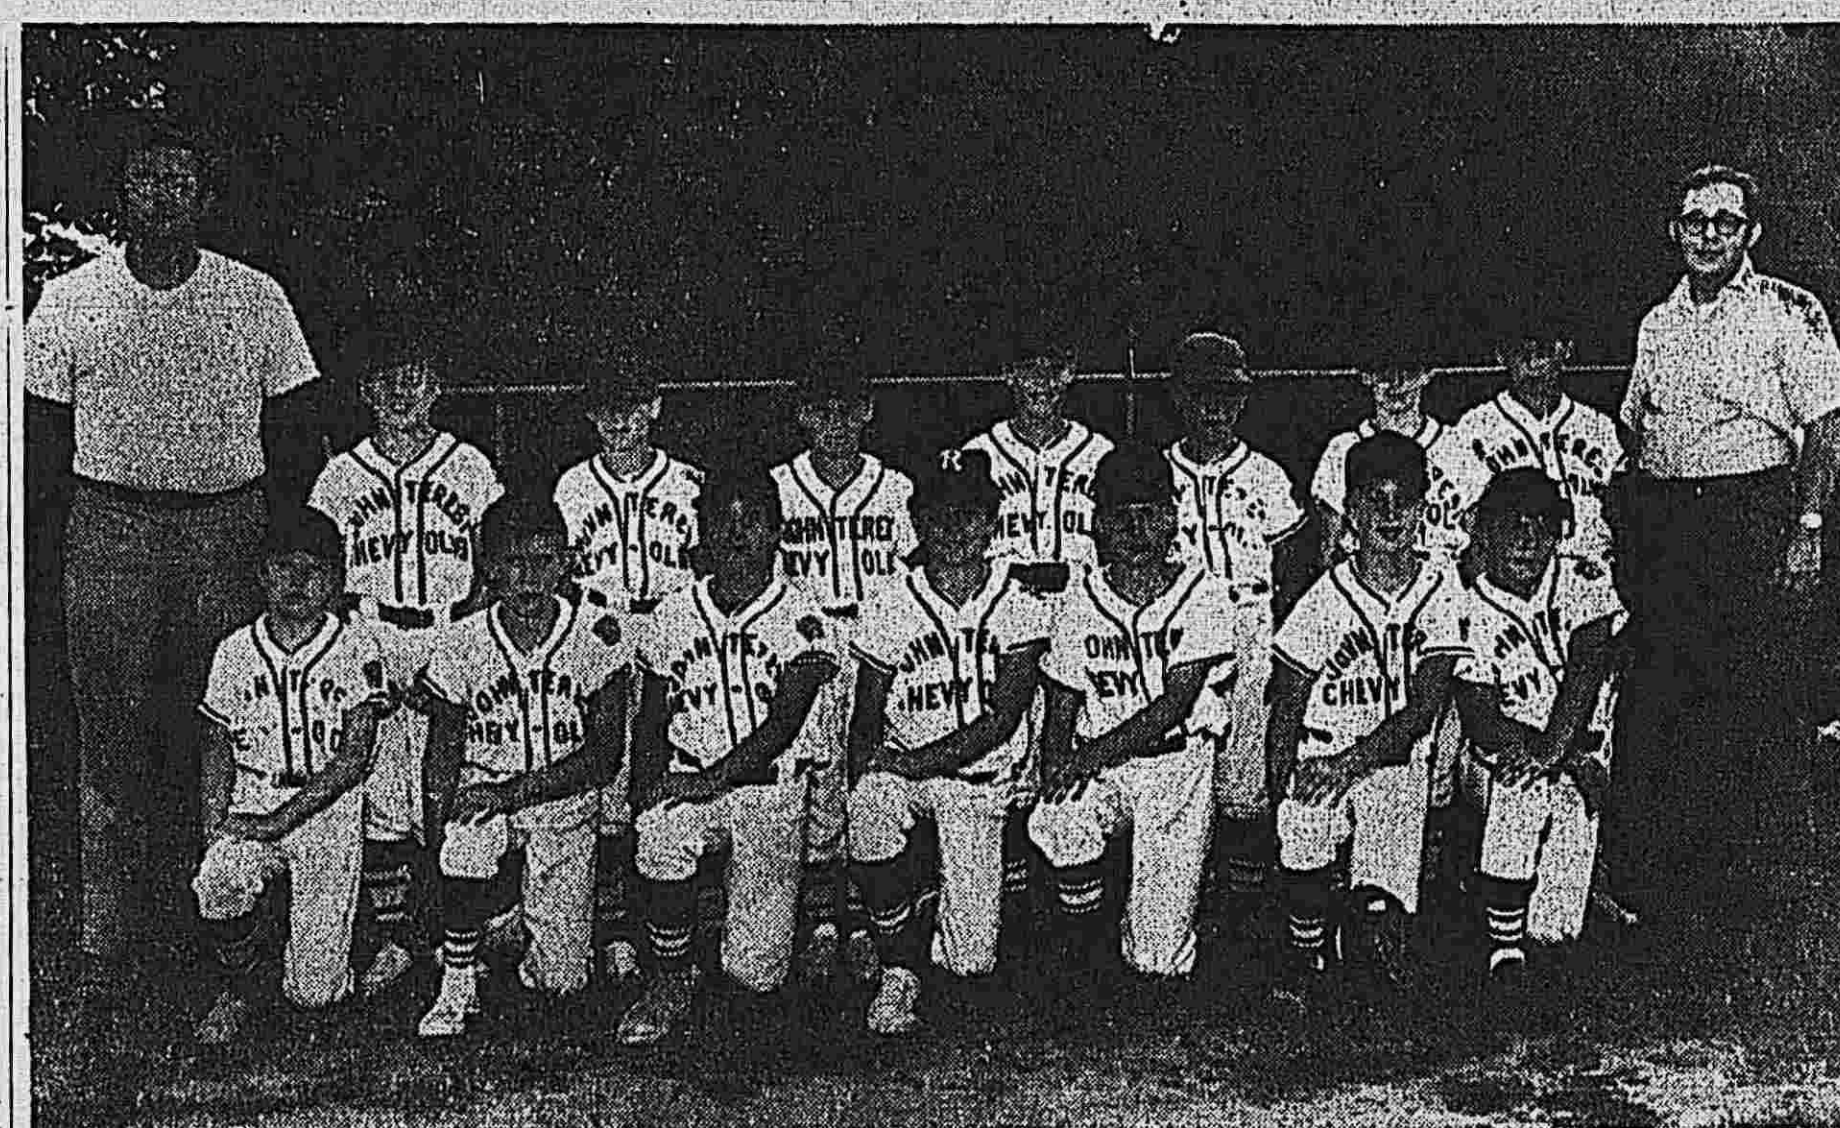

Modified heats were won by Jay Slager, Cameron, Jim Bozeman and Harris. Bozeman won the semi feature but only in the final two feet as he nosed out Ray Faulkner, Libertyville, who has returned after three weeks of absence showing he hasn't lost any of his talent that earned him "Rookie of the Year" honors in 1969.

valve, fuel injected engines at Wilmot.

Eddie Stillman won nine feature races at Wilmot one year and in a Championship race for 100 laps, started in the back and got into the lead so early that he won more than $1400 overall for the night. Stillman's mark of nine wins in a season still stands but now Whitey Harris is only two wins away from tying that mark and only three away from breaking the record.

Harris races not only at Wilmot, but at the Lake Geneva Raceway, Raceway Park, Waukegan, and Beaver Dam, Wis.

The Yankees—Little League Champs

Yanks Win Second Title In Little League Action

The Yankees won their 2nd straight Antioch Little League championship with a 7-1 win over the Cubs. The Yankees, White Division leaders played the Cubs, Gray Division winners, in a best 2 of 3 game series on July 30 and 31.

The Yankees overpowered the Cubs in the first game by a score of 21-3. Jon Bodin hit 2 homers for the Yankees with Dave Lagerstrom and Dave Zilkus each having 4 hits. Matt Warner was the winning pitcher and Joey Cermak took the loss for the Cubs.

Two of the League's leading pitchers faced each other in the second game with Bruce Tossey of the Yankees besting Mitch Witt of the Cubs by a 7-1 score. Zilkus, Bodin, Tossey and Romaine got key hits for the Yanks.

Manager Ron Vos' Cubs, sponsored by Lyons-Ryan Ford, were sparked all year by the league's leading home run hitter, Mitch Witt and Joey Cermak. Witt was also the team's top pitcher.

Young Breaks Record

Ray Young did it . . . Sunday night at the Waukegan Speedway he broke the modern record for consecutive feature wins by annexing his fifth victory in as many nights. The five wins breaks a record Jim Cossman set in 1966 for late models, which Young had tied twice.

The Dolton driver also set fast time and won his heat race to be the night's biggest money winner. Next weekend he hopes to record his sixth and seventh consecutive wins which would tie the modified stock car streak set by John Reimer of Caledonia in 1965 at the Speedway.

Young had a stiff battle during the first half of the main with Al Gutche of Bristol leading the first four laps. Waukegan's Jim Cossman gained the lead on the fifth and sixth laps before Vern Browne of Waukegan, Young and Bob May of Gurnee flashed by.

Browne, who qualified only .05 slower than Young, could only hold off the Dolton speedster until the ninth lap when Young took over for good and the record. Browne stayed glued to Young's rear bumper, but the veteran ran a perfect race for the win.

Bob May drove a steady race for third money and Bob Roper of Chicago took fourth money after a shoving match with Cossman midway in the race. Cossman finished fifth with Gutche taking sixth money and Lou Clavey of Deerfield seventh. The race was run non-stop after two early restarts.

The first late model heat saw another serious accident in front

Schill Wins Feature

Al Schill won his fifth feature race at the Lake Geneva Raceway on Sunday night as he passed Bill Klein and then Ken Monroe to win with a half straight-away lead over Whitey Harris. The win again tied up the battle for the number of overall wins between Harris and Schill on the IRA tracks.

Claude Potter won the 15 lap semi feature which had to be restarted when Dave Peters of Lake Geneva flipped two and a half times off the number one turn on the first start. It looked bad but Peters was OK and said he would be back for the next race. Potter cut through the traffic and took the lead from Bill Robis.

The most exciting and closest race was the third heat won by Paul Cameron ahead of Al Schill and Tom Anderson with all the cars very close when the checkered flag waved at the end. Other heats were won by Potter, Jerry Hester and Roger Otto.

Jim Boehles, point leader in the Sportsman stock cars, changed driver seats Sunday and drove Denny McKay's modified. He finished sixth in the semi-feature and timed 18th fastest out of 29 cars.

Jack Ashenbrenner won the Sportsman feature and set fast time but missed the clean sweep as Don Fulera won the heat race.

Harris Headed For Top

In the nearly 20 year period since they started racing stock cars without fenders at the Kenosha County Speedway in Wilmot, the drivers have distinguished themselves with records and feats still recalled at the mention of their names. Now a third driver, Whitey Harris, Lake Villa, is headed for that same kind of fame in nearly the same kind of cars at the same track.

Norm Nelson, the Great Dane from Racine, is a former Champion of the Kenosha County Speedway modified stock cars. He won his title by cutting from the back into the lead in a fashion that fans at this track will never forget. Nelson went on to become a Champion of late model stock cars too and is still a winning driver besides being the owner of Plymouths that have accounted for most of the Championships in the United States Auto Club Racing in recent years.

Nelson drove a Crosley bodied car with a modified stock car engine and started a trend that soon flourished to exotic racing engines. In the early Sixties, a driver from Milwaukee won what seemed to be an endless number of feature races to the other drivers of the faster overhead very hard into the first turn concrete wall after running over the wheels of another car while challenging for the lead in the trophy dash. Anzinger suffered a slight concussion and was held in the hospital for several hours before being released and returning to the track.

The most serious injury came in the first lap of the feature race when Bob Delaney of Roselle hit the first turn wall head-on with such force his shoulder harness broke. Delaney suffered undetermined rib injuries and was admitted to St. Therese Hospital.

And there were many more accidents and close calls throughout the night as a large field of late models and hobby stocks were on hand.

Young had another sensational night, winning every event he entered. His closest competitor was Bob Roper of Chicago who led the trophy dash, the third and fastest heat and the feature before Young moved in front for the win. Roper finished fourth in the dash and second in both the heat and the 30 lap feature.

Two drivers from the USAC late model circuit entered Saturday's races with Tom Jones of Northbrook finishing fifth in the main event after leading briefly and Rich Oertel of Palatine winning both the first heat race and the semi-feature event.

Delaney's accident came in the first curve of the feature. Following the restart Pete Brewer of Waukegan broke an axle and took a wild swing into the third turn wall in a shower of sparks requiring yet another restart.

On the third try Al Gutche of Bristol took the lead and maintained a nice margin for five laps before Tom Jones moved in front. Just one lap later Bob Roper shot in front with Ray Young in hot pursuit and it just seemed a matter of time before Young overtook Roper for the lead in the 9th lap.

Young held on to top spot for the win with Roper second, followed closely by Jim Cossman of Waukegan, Bob May of Gurnee and Tom Jones. Scott Moore of Mundelein ran sixth in front of Chicago's Frank Cabrera.

Vick Goben of Great Lakes took the lead in the hobby stock feature on the last lap to become the 16th different hobby feature winner of the season. He also won the second heat race. Burton Mauldin of Park City finished second in the hobby main and Cliff Burdette of Sturtevant took third.

Besides the many accidents Saturday, there were also some close finishes. The closest and most exciting came in the first hobby stock heat race. Frank Ginn of Zion and Dan Hanlan of Waukegan were running wheel-to-wheel for the lead in the final lap with sparks flying when Wendell Stevenson of Gages Lake slipped underneath for the win as the three swept across the finish line fender-to-fender!

Hanlan came back to win the hobby consolation, taking the lead with just two laps to go, and then finished ninth in the main. Ginn hit the wall while leading the feature with one lap remaining and did not finish.

Tom Oliver of Zion continues to lead the hobby stock drivers, although he finished sixth in the feature, two spots behind Chuck Bostick of Waukegan who ranks second in the standings.

Nurse Program Brings Results To Hospital

A month-long nurse recruiting program has produced some results for the Veterans Administration hospital at Hines, Ill., but the hospital is still short some 40 registered nurses as well as 20 licensed practical nurses.

Dr. Lee H. Schlesinger, director of the hospital, says they always have a shortage of nurses, but because of the activation of a new $32-million hospital early in September the shortage has become acute.

Depending upon qualifications and experience, registered nurses have been offered a beginning salary ranging from $710 to $832 a month by the VA facility. One of the largest hospitals in the entire VA system, Hines is located 15 miles from downtown Chicago in a neighboring suburb.

The new ultra-modern hospital affords the latest in automated equipment. In an attempt to attract nurses throughout the nation to relocate at the hospital, Dr. Schlesinger says that for qualified nurses moving expenses can usually be arranged.

Dr. Schlesinger pointed out that both RN's and LPN's hired would come under the federal retirement system, as well as receiving all the other benefits of sick leave, annual leave, paid holidays, uniform allowances, health insurance and periodic salary increases. There are shift differentials for LPN's.

New Age At Sea

New words are being used with increasing frequency to describe transportation industry innovations. Intermodalism and total transportation are becoming the order of the day. They represent the new technology that underlies the rebirth of the U. S. Merchant Marine.

In the course of a Maritime Week Address, the head of the American Institute of Merchant Shipping shows how the technological leadership of the U.S. maritime industry is destined to restore the U.S. to a preeminent position on the sea-lanes of the world to the enhancement of "... America's competitive position in trade ..."

Under the Nixon Administration's program, a modernized merchant marine will tie an expanded U.S. economy to an expanded world trade. The shipping spokesman declares, "The American Merchant Marine will play the dominant role in developing a total integrated transportation system (intermodalism) through use of revolutionary container and barge ships now either in service, being built or to be constructed in the Administration's pending ship modernization program."

The new merchant marine that will come into being during coming years will be unlike anything ever seen on the high seas before - or in port for that matter. By 1978, with high-technology ships now on drawing boards or under construction, plus existing newer U. S. flag cargo liners, we will have a 424-ship fleet with a yearly sea-lift capacity of about 164 million tons of general commercial cargo compared with some 66 million tons today.

As new ships go into service, containerization and barge system operations will increase vessel utilization from the ratio of one day in port to one day at sea to a schedule of one day in port to four days at sea. The benefits of the new technology merchant marine to the nation will be beyond measure. The maritime descendants of the Yankee Clipper are moving forward with the vision of their forefathers to a new age of total transportation.

Grid Heroes Groom

Want to be a football hero? Scoring the winning touchdown or intercepting the tie-breaking pass is great on the field. But after the game, heroes score points by keeping hands and nails clean, by shaving when that "shadow" draws near, by using a stimulating after shave such as Avon's new Bravo, and by keeping hair well groomed. It all adds up to a right image on or off the field.

Booklet On Car Care Is Available

Americans are spending a needless amount of money on the care and maintenance of their automobiles. In fact, if motorists knew precisely how much it cost each year to operate their cars, they would be shocked into cutting expenses.

This is the finding of the National Auto Club which has conducted extensive research to determine how the nation's 84 million car owners spend their money for automotive services and supplies. A corollary objective of the study was to help the consumer substantially reduce expenses.

This research led to the publication of an informative, free booklet, "101 Ways to Save Money on Your Car" which is packed with money-saving suggestions on car care. Written by Ray Hite, an automotive expert, it contains helpful hints on improving gasoline mileage; proven ways to cut costs on engine repairs, tire, battery and accessory purchases; muffler and tail pipe replacements; brake service, etc. There are also special sections on "How to Save Money on Car Insurance," "How to Make Tires and Batteries Last Longer," "How to Make Your Car Look Better and Last Longer," plus valuable tips on how to get the best buy when purchasing a new or used automobile.

The booklet is being offered free to readers of this newspaper as a public service of the National Auto Club. For each copy requested, send 35 cents in coins to cover cost of handling and mailing to: National Auto Club, Box 368, Elmont, New York 11003.

Not everyone buys Bonds for retirement.

Not anymore anyway.

Especially since the new higher interest rates went into effect.

U.S. Savings Bonds now pay 5% interest when held to maturity of 5 years, 10 months (4% for the first year; thereafter 5.20% to maturity).

Interest like that makes Bonds a great way to save for the extra things that make living a little bit more fun. Boats, vacations, campers, a place at the lake or in the mountains. Things you can enjoy while you're still feeling young.

You can get your savings plan started by joining the Payroll Savings Plan where you work or the Bond-a-Month Plan where you bank.

Start saving now. Bonds are for more than retiring.

Bonds are safe. If lost, stolen, or destroyed, we replace them. When needed, they can be cashed at your bank. Tax may be deferred until redemption. And always remember, Bonds are a proud way to save.

Take stock in America.
With higher paying U.S. Savings Bonds.
